JAN of Twenty Seventeen News Stuffs

In spite of the inclement, brutal, raw, benumbed freezing wintery night a collection of ice covered souls showed up for our first meeting of the new year. So, OK, it's not Minnesota but I'm still cold.

Frozen to the marrow persons were self, Billy and Judy, Bill and Andei, Wayne and Ann, Greg, Phil, Dave and Louis, Wayne and Ann's son.

Gail was one of the many who seems to have contacted a cold. No reports of others in a similar situation.

Greg gave out a bundle of money at the Xmas Party which we gave back for dues for 2017.

Old Lang Sine: The Party. Reported by Andei: FUN. Reported by Judy: FUN. Reported by the guys: BURP. I think a good time was had by all. Judy had everyone talk about an old family Christmas tradition.

On the subject of food, the old Pig Out had 13 customers including Wayne and Laura who came from far, far away.

Happy New Year: A new roster will almost certainly perhaps be done by next meeting says the almost certainly Secretary.

The new Piglet munch fest will be a dinner on the 21st of Jan which is a Saturday at 5pm. The feeding trough is named The Hook which is in Perrinville (Edmonds) and is at 18521 76th Ave W.

Harry, that would be me, says he has a few people ready to go on a bit of Rt 66 starting about May 1st. All are welcome to attend. We will be in Kingman for the end of the Fun Run on May 6th. Then we will be headed East looking at all kinds of junk and stuffs. <http://azrt66.com/> And yes, I know that's not an up to date poster up there.

Wayne says his Willy is coming apart. He plans to paint it. Sounds less painful than a tattoo.

B-days were Troy and Louie. Sorry guys, we ordered thinking you were coming and had to eat it. And Dave got the 50/50 of 16 bucks.

Women spend more time wondering what men are thinking than men spend thinking.
