LATE June, Twenty-Two News Stuffs

I'm late, I'm late, for a very important date...but alas, too many of Alice's magic mushrooms, I fear, have driven me to forgetfulness.

So better late than never, our collection this month included Billy and Judy, Louie and Mary Lou, Paul and Gigi, Greg and Gail, Phil, Laura, Dave, Harry and Mary, and special guests from Gilbert, Arizona, Faith and Tori, Laura's grandkids and Caleb, Judy's grand daughter.

Retiring Treasurer Paul imported two 50/50's and one member to get us close to the two grand mark.

Olden Time Stuffs: Still need photos for the web. The din-din at Burger Master after the Colby cruise was a Baker's dozen, 13 of us and a gaggle of hot rods. The next days show had over 500 vehicles. The Marysville's Berry Show on the 16th can use our help. If you want free entry, show up at 8am or before. It's a no trophy, lots of door prizes kind of show. The Monroe Swap meet was good, nice day and lots sold. I got rid of lots of pesky Chevy parts.

New times Stuffs: First, elections. Nominated were Billy, Greg, Harry, and Linda (I just heard a bunch of bad words from Charleston). Board is Louie, Judy and Jerry. Vote early, vote often. Fred Russell is looking for a 56 for a Microsoft game upgrade. They take many photos, maybe two hours worth. Maybe Greg can excavate Gail's truck.

This month's Pig Out will be at the Kafe Neo, 21108 Hwy 99 in Edmonds, 425-672-3476 at 6pm. The date is the 24th of June.

Xmas Stuffs: Same place a last year, Collector's Choice.

Birthdays were Gail, Wayne (ret), and Vikki. We're happy as a dead hog in the sun that you're all still here.

Good of the Order by Bill: A collection of "Lost Words" from the past like fender skirts and curb feelers

The Sec was cheated out of the 50/50 by Greg who took home a big one of $14.50.
