Jan, Twenty-Thirteen News Stuffs

Attendees:

Harry, the scribe, didn't show, then Linda (1st cover) didn't show, so Judy covered for us while Harry was skinny dipping in Calif.

Bill & Judy, Ralph, Wayne & Ann, Greg & Gail, & Phil did show, thanks a bunch.

Old News:

Christmas Party – everyone thought it was fun and a great location.

Got a nice Thank You from Dave & Freddie for the flowers the club sent in memory of Dave's father. Thanks Judy for handling that – we will get you a check at the next meeting.

New News:

Dinner Run - 20th of January - 5pm

Indigo Kitchen & Ale House 2902 164th St. SW, Lynnwood, WA 425-741-8770
American (traditional) Food.

For the beer lovers, 20 beers on tap and new beers each week.

Wellness:

Judy is recouping from broken foot bone and Vikki is back to work.

Officer Changes:

Need someone to step up for vice president position, especially before Bill starts fishing. Treasurer – need Paul to meet Greg & Judy at the bank to get the account transferred. Paul also has the information about incorporation that needs to be submitted.

Good of the order: Dick Flynn passed away and his wife is having an auction: 57 T-Bird plus shop equipment. Sat, Jan 19, 11am – 1207 NW 73rd St., Seattle, WA 98117 (in the Greenwood area)

Well, I certainly miss Harry's illustrious wit in the newsletter, me I'm a "just the facts" kinda person, no fun. Hurry back Harry.

1. See Bill for a rebuilt 341 Lincoln marine engine for $2000 obo. Currently being used to power a snow plow back East. Will return soon. Bill is looking for an F-350, 54-56.
