Feb, Twenty-Thirteen News Stuffs

Ono pizza and primo friends came together at the same time Thursday night. Pizza's will remain anonymous but the friends included myself and wahine, Billy and Judy with two keiki hangers on, Ralph, Greg and Gail, Phil, Wayne and Ann, and Dave.

Finally after a few false starts, the new treasurer has gotten the key to the safe. It only took three tries at the bank. He deposited 225 bucks. He took in two dues tonight and reminded everyone that dues were due. Well, duh, what else would dues be?

Kahiko business: We reimbursed Judy for flowers sent to Dave Nordeen for the recent death of his father. Wayne's report said that the Ale House had good food and was quiet enough to talk which the dozen who showed up like to do. Ralph was voted in as a new VP. We had to double the wages to get him.

Broken Down Persons Dept: Judy's foot is doing well and she has auditioned for Dancing with the Stars. Bill had his gizzard out or what ever they take out with an appendectomy. The missing part didn't hurt his sense of humor. Harry got the popsillal and pneumonia in Sacramento and wasn't allowed out of town for three days. Didn't matter. The daughter had cable. And Linda is having thyroid problems. We'll keep a close weather eye on her.

Mea Hou Business: The new kaukau run is scheduled for Sunday, 24 February at 5pm. If you want to join in this month's pig-out, please come to Club Hollywood on Aurora and 167. Bill suggested a trip to LeMays' new museum. Dave thought he could get us a free tour. Fund raising was brought up. Suggestions were a possible trunk sale or putting more effort into increasing membership. No one asked about selling cupcakes, thank goodness. Car shows: Myself brought up a couple of shows. The first is Richland's Cool Desert Nights on June 20-22. Bill and Jerry went to this one last year. Second is the NSRA (National Street Rodder Association) meet near Vancouver the next weekend. We have some interest in this. Both will require rooms to be reserved ASAP. More info to follow. Also mentioned was another trip to the ceramic store where you pick a piece and then do your own glazing, etc. Even Greg was enthusiastic.

Phil took the 50/50 kala (IRS, plz note). Dave didn't want his dessert. ps: ignore the Hawaiian. I'm off for this year's first trip and need the practice.

1. See Bill for a rebuilt 341 Lincoln marine engine for $2000 obo. Sorry, not available until FEMA returns it from powering Boston International airport. .Bill is looking for an F-350, 54-56.
