Hey, everyone has to be good for somethin'

Oct, Twenty-Thirteen News Stuffs

Wow! More than a Baker's dozen arrived for the Oct meeting. Those persons included my good looking and modest self, Jerry and Linda, Greg and Gail, Louie and Mary Lou, Wayne and Ann, Ralph, Phil, Bill and Judy and Troy and Angela.

The treasurer has gone two steps back with the bank. He tried to get them to send the statements to his home address but so far, no luck. Schadenfreude may be the only rational response to all this. The Sept and Oct 50/50's will up us 34 bucks..

Sick Stuffs Dept: Terry is home and rollin'. He will be getting a prosthetic leg soon. Linda is now home. Jerry made a couple of ramps for the house for Terry's wheel chair. Our Louie looked terrific. He must be right. He ate my jalapeno. Knee ball operation #2 will be Gail but after the Christmas party. I'm guessing so she can still boogie. Last is Wayne, who in a Van Goghish fit of unrestrained love for his Willy, cut off his ear. Dumb. Where you gonna hang an ear ring now, mate?

Monroe Stuffs: We have 4 spots, each 10x20, across from the scone stand on Oct 11-13th during the Monroe swap meet. For those hoarders who can't carry all their treasures in, meet at the McDonalds by the fairgrounds at 1130-1200 on Friday for a fish fillet and to load your crap into some ones trailer for transport to another galaxy or the swap meet, your choice.

Dept of OLD Pig Out: An incredible feed at Jerry and Linda's house. I didn't eat for two days afterwards. A nice turnout. To bad if you missed it. Phutttt...

Dept of NEW Pig Out: Saturday, the 19th, yes, SATURDAY. The place: Pumphouse Bar and Grill at 11802 NE 8th St, Bellevue, 425-455-4110. The time: 5pm.

New stuffs: Web site update. The web site is not complete but is actually on line at <http://tatenterprisesinc.com/>. Send Troy a photo of your car or truck before and after the restoration. Make it as high resolution as you can. Email is troy@tat-inc.com. We talked about a tribute page, a past member's page, parts for sale page, etc. We voted to pay GoDaddy.com seven bucks a year so we can still have our same PSL name. This should be a great site when done. Plenny mahalos to Troy for his help.

Xmas party stuffs: Looks to be on Dec 7th. Same place, Collectors Choice in Snohomish, 215 Cypress Ave. They will give us the 30 person room set up for 24 members and we will order off the menu. Dinner choices include Prime Rib, NY Steak, grilled halibut or salmon, chicken paparazzi, or Classic Annette Funicello Alfredo. Club will buy pupu's (hors d'oeuvres for you mainlanders). That will be BBQ pork, loaded potato skins, crab and artichoke dip, breaded fried zucchini, and coconut prawns. Gift exchange works like this. You want a prezzie, you bring a prezzie. Make it for the same sex as you are or would like to be after the operation. Keep it less than an Andrew Jackson. Each paid up member will get 25 bucks back for dinner. Is this one deal or wot, brah? The menu was just to see if anyone reads this rag.

More Kala Dept: The club was looking for ways to make money since we aren't having car shows. One idea is for the club members to donate an item for the swap meet & the proceeds would go to the club. Another option could be that the swap meet members (that don't already pay for booths) could give something to the club towards the $40 the club paid for the booth.

The 50/50 was taken home by Jerry while Billy read us the history of the Pink Toe Truck. It looked pretty good for an old VW van and a large amount of fiber glass and duct tape.
