WE SALUTE
OUR VETERANS

MONDAY THE 11TH

Nov, Twenty-Thirteen News Stuffs

It was a dark and stormy night. Well, it certainly was dark but actually not too stormy. In spite of the inclement weather the attendees included a late secretary, Greg and Gail, Wayne and Ann, Ralph, Phil, Bill and Judy and Troy and Angela.

The treasurer has finally earned his wages. A $200 deposit plus 60 bucks from swap meet donations brought us up to.....oh, think I'm going to tell you, do you? What, you see what happened to Snowden? I will tell you we paid Rowland $23.80 for secret NSA work. Arrest him.

Oldies Dept:

Sick Stuffs Dept: Terry and Linda are home and recuperating. Mary Lou went to Texas for two weeks when her aunt died. Wayne had his ear spliced back on. So much for suffering for your art.

Monroe Stuffs: A success although a wee bit chilly.

Dept of OLD Pig Out: Pump house Bar and Grill was rated swell by the 8 persons who attended.

Dept of NEW Pig Out: Sunday, 17th. This month it's at El Puerto in Edmonds. The time: 5pm. 425 Main St, Edmonds, WA 98020 (425) 672-2469

New stuffs Dept:

Terry and Viikkii send a big Arizona hi.

Web site update. The web site is complete and is back at our regular address. Go visit. You'll be impressed. <http://pugetsoundlimiteds.com/>
We're on Face Book @ <https://www.facebook.com/pugetsoundlimiteds>
Send Troy a photo of your car or truck before and after the restoration.

Make it as high resolution as you can. Email is troy@tat-inc.com.

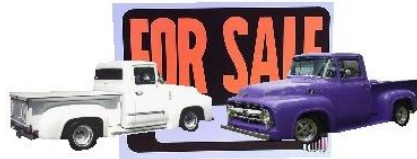

Xmas party stuffs: Dec 7th. Collectors Choice in Snohomish, 215 Cypress Ave. They will give us the 30 person room set up for 24 members and we will order off the menu. Dinner choices same as on last month's newsletter. Too bad if you wrapped fish in it. Gift exchange (and life) works like this. You bring nuthin'. You get nuthin'. Keep your prezzie under 12.5 Pound Sterling (GBP). Each paid up member will get 25 bucks back for the tucker. And that's Yank money.

More Kala Dept.:

Our idea for club members to donate an item or cash for the swap meet worked out well. We got 60 bucks to cover the 40 we paid for the slot.

Fred Russell made contact about the photos of Gail's truck that he took for the MS video game but I forget why. So, fire me.

More last minute stuffs: Included below is a list of donation opportunities for us to consider next month. Thanks to Linda. Bill gave us the history of headlights. Enlightening! And it was both Bill and Judy's B-Days. Finally they get a discount on the ferry. Last was the 49/51. The treasurer didn't have 50 cents to make it even. I think Wayne won.
