July of Twenty Fourteen News Stuffs

The good captain abandoned the sinking ship PSL and was last seen in his rowboat murdering fish at Williams Lake. Ralph took his place on the bridge and put the helm hard over. Third class passengers included Harry (looking under the weather with a bad case of wog), Jerry and Linda, Wayne and Ann, Greg and Gail, and Larry Wagner, and old school chum of Wayne's. They went to different schools together back in small kid time.

Treasurer Greg reported he found the 48 smackers he left at Spiro's last month (it may be time for a wage reduction here) so we are up to $****. Please email me your Visa pin and mother's maiden name for the exact amount. He will add the big 10 clams from this 50/50.

Sick Call: Harry-sick, Louie-MIA, Wayne-had what turned out to be a minor adjustment, Capt Billy-Kidney stone causing problems with fish murdering. Jerry saw Terry at home so he is out of the hospital. Let's be careful out there, people.

Old Stuffs: Old Pig Out: Diamond Knot Brew Pub in Mount Lake Terrace. Bill and Judy, Jerry and Linda and two of Bills friends, Rob & Vivienne came. Rob has a 39 Ford p/u. H reported Cool Desert Nights were not exactly cool but not too bad either, about 80. A six pack or so of us went over.

Newish Stuffs: This months pig out will be on the 20th at 5pm. It's at Arnies in Edmonds. Address: 300 Admiral Way, Edmonds, Phone:(425) 771-5688, Greg is in charge.

Linda is working on paying for the Fall Monroe Swap Meet. The club voted to buy one spot.

Our lovable Paul was seen in good shape.

Good of the Order Stuffs: Wayne took home the 50/50, a big ten bucks. You can bet he'll be on EBay tonight trying to spend it on his little Willy.

Happy 4th. Be safe.
