Nov of Twenty Fourteen News Stuffs

Speak softly but carry a big Willy was our motto on one of the windiest days and nights for some time. Maybe it was drive slowly. Anyway a few resolute souls ventured out to Spiro's for the November PSL meeting. Our windblown hero, Capt. Billy, along with Ms. Judy, Senor Louie and Mary Lou, Phil and Karon and Harry and Mary rounded out the ship's company.

Our budgetary dept of pecuniary was truant, having spent the day in hospital. Unfortunately, this was the only day that Swedish offered a free vasectomy with a frontal lobotomy. Greg is never one to pass up a deal. More Sick Call: Wayne too spent a week laying down with an infection related to his jaw operation. Louie arrived and immediately ate my jalapeño. He can't be too bad.

Kahiko Stuffs: Monroe: Bill sold, Jerry sold, Harry sold, Greg bought. It looks like we have the same spots next Fall.

B-days: Mr. and Mrs. Baker both celebrated their November birthdays by indulging in sustenance in the form of chocolate cake.

More Xmas Party: In case you have been using the past newsletters to blow your nose on, I repeat: The party is at Collector's Choice in Snohomish. The date of this Pig Out is Friday, Dec 5th. Drinky poos are at 6:30, hors d'oeuvres at 7:00 and pig out at 7:30. Bring a gift, $20 limit, if you want to join in the spirit of Christmas benefactoring. For more info, see paragraph 5a in section C.

Mea Hou Stuffs: Last Pig Out: Hop Jacks had Bill and Judy, Greg and Gail, Dave and Freddie and Jerry and Linda. Excellent food and fun reported.

So much fun was had in fact, that this month's Pig Out is at the same place. Join the group on the 16th of Nov at Hop Jacks.

<http://hopjacks.net/> for more info. Address is 19702 Highway 99, Lynnwood, WA 98036, (425) 245-7901. 5pm as usual.

Non Profit Time: We voted to give a hundred bucks to the Edmonds Food Bank because we are such wonderful people. Oh and we had to so we could keep our non profit status.

Bill won 6 big ones. It barely paid for his kiddy cone at Mukilteo ferry.

"I didn't say it was your fault. I said that I'm blaming it on you."

The web site is complete and is back at our regular address. <http://pugetsoundlimiteds.com/> We're on Face Book @ <https://www.facebook.com/pugetsoundlimiteds>
