July of Twenty Fifteen News Stuffs

A Baker's dozen attended the July meeting, alas, without the Baker. He was out murdering a moose or a fish or something. Those of us who prefer to buy our fish pre-murdered at Safeway included Jerry and Linda with imports from the right coast, Kayla and Karla, Louie and Mary Lou, Wayne and Ann, Ralph and Christina, Greg and Gail, Phil and Dave, and of course, me.

Ralph was our leader, slamming down the gavel even before I had finished my Fruit Loops. Report from the Treasurer for Life was same-o same-o.

Mature Stuffs: The Pig Out Breakie was a success with 12 PSL persons attending. Lots of good fun and food. Car show stuffs included Harry and Jerry at Mukilteo. It was a terrific show, 110 cars, band, food and a free tour of the old planes. Wayne and Ann took the newly repaired and restored Ford to Montana at 75mph. 96 in the shade. That's the temp, not his speed. Being Montana, a Toyota Jeep thingy won Best of Show. Wayne's mate, Alan, went along in his Volvo wagon and got first in foreign. Harry and Mary went off to Car d' Lane in Idaho the week before. I had to tow Mike's '56 Chevy back to the hotel. Embarrassing. 500 very expen$ive cars.

Good news. No qualmish, queasy or ailing persons reported.

Immature Stuffs: Upcoming shows are the Good Guys, and a couple in Shoreline. See sidebar. This months Pig Out will be a potluck BBQ. Date and info to follow. Greg is bottling beer (this is not news. This is normal) Monies for the 5 spots at Monroe has been sent. A vote to reimburse Bill for one of those was approved.

Dave showed up with his teardrop for Harry to borrow for Hood River. Harry tied it on to the back of the Heretic with some bailing wire and was last seen bouncing north on the never to be finished Aurora Ave.

Last, for doing such a good job, Ralph was awarded the seventeen 50/50 bucks for Lacy's college fund. Lacy was able to draw her very own number to win the weird fish. Absolutely amazing.

There's a fine line between cuddling and holding someone down so they can't get away.
