August of Twenty Fifteen News Stuffs

What a great turnout. Angela and Troy even endured a 2.5 hr drive in Seattle traffic to join us. Mo' braver den me, brah. Other brave PSL persons were Billy and Judy, Jerry and Linda, Louie and Mary Lou, Greg and Gail, Phil, Dave and from the Great North, me.

First order of business was sick call. A bit sparse (we like it like this) although as best I could hear, Judy had a cocktail spasm while on her inhaler or maybe while inhaling. Geeze, Judy, even Clinton knew not to inhale. Louie was lookin' good and Wayne "ate the whole thing" on his plate so no worries there.

Old stuffs: With no leadership the almost planned BBQ floundered. More on a new one in a NY minute. Wayne made a motion that the same group of suckers, sorry, club officers be allowed to continue in their positions of high authority for another year. All voted yea except the group of suckers.

Some new stuffs: 1. BurgerMaster on hwy 99 car show Wed 8/19 in the afternoon. You need to pre-register. Call Phil. 2. Meadowdale high school 9/26 bring your cars 9-4 Louie's granddaughter. 3. 8/29 2-5pm Wayne's birthday Pig Out potluck. Free grines, brah, don't miss it. 525 N 190th, only a few blocks from Spiro's. Oak Harbor is today but if you haven't cast off your dock lines by now, you going be late. Tomorrow, Sunday, head to Monroe for the Dream Builders Show.

50/50 Louie won once more, a big 23 smackers this time. Hey, it paid for his jalapeños.

Good of the order: Harry brought back Dave's teardrop. What a fun little trailer. Now to decide whether to build a trailer like it that eliminates 87.4% of all Karma Sutra positions or to opt for a wee bit bigger model.

You do not need a parachute to skydive. You only need a parachute to skydive twice.
