Next PSL meeting Nov 5th

Oct of Twenty Fifteen News Stuffs

What a beautiful day and what a shame to spend it at a car meeting. Killing time with me were the Capt. and First Mate, Jerry and Linda, Wayne and Ann, Greg and Gail, Phil, and our newest members, Bill Costello and Andei, who you will notice has changed the spelling of her name due to some unfortunate IRS problems. Welcome aboard the good ship, PSL sometimes referred to as the North West's version of the Titanic.

Mr. Greg wrote three checks, one to CCR for the club's Christmas party, one to Bill for the club's Monroe swap meet space, and one to the Bora Bora travel agency in French Polynesia. Nothing deposited. Duh!

Green around the Gills Dept: Mary Lou went to the ER on Wed. night for what turned out to be the flu. She is home now and feeling a little better. Note: Get your darn flu shot. Troy and Angela both have a bad cold. A flu shot may not have helped but who knows. Please get well.

Antediluvian Stuffs: Speaking of old, we reiterated old news about old Wayne's 71st B-day party, a high flying success, the fun Burger Master show, a culinary delight, and the Meadowdale HS FUNraiser which included old Bill, new Bill, Louie and our old compadre, Pablo.

Bill and Judy joined 340 of their closest petrol head friends at Everett for the car show there. No gold but a good time. Jerry and Linda joined me and a couple of me Cruzer mates at the Mt Vernon Fairgrounds. About 70 cars, which was reduced by about 10 the second a light drizzle started. Both Jerry and Harry got a nice plaque. Northwood Casino was another drizzlier. Seventy five cars, including a gaggle of our northern Cousins, came for a chance at the trophies, all of which included a hundred dollar bill except for the Best of Show which included 200 smackers. Modesty prevents me from mentioning the name of the '56 Fordolet's owner that won that.

Last old business is the Pig Out. It was eloquently summed up by Greg in the hip vernacular, "It sucked". Other than the lousy menu, the bad food, and the worse service it was a success. Text the Better Business Bureau, Hash tag #Phutttt.

Contemporary News Stuffs: Monroe Swap Meet Oct 10-11. 6 spaces for your junks. Bring a chair. Its right across from the scone stands. Meet at 11am on Friday at the Monroe McDonalds if you have a load of junks to take in. Peoples of importance will get it in for you.

Here is the first of many announcements about our Christmas party. Once again it's at Collector's Choice in Snohomish, this year on the 5th which is a Saturday. Come at 6-630 for Maitais and pupu's (sorry, I can't spell hor d'oervres) that will include plates full of ono grines. More information can be found on your new Iphone6S, your Galaxy 12769XLT or on page 3.

NEW Pig Out: Meet at: Sunday 11/18 5pm, Channel Marker, 120 W Dayton St D1, Edmonds, (425) 275-9590

Good of the Order: Jerry and Linda have sold their house, two hours after lowering the price. Crikie! Somehow they will pack up an entire house, buy a new one, move in and go off to Charleston and Arizona for six months all in the next 32hours and 15min. They make me tired. Under really good news, Wayne got thumbs up from the doc regarding his neck surgery. Now we'll see what the doc says about his Willy. He also won the 50/50.

.The last thing I want to do is hurt you, but it's still on my list.
