May of Twenty Sixteen News Stuffs

Our Vice President arrived and took command of the carnage. Did you know we had a VP? Amazing! And he did a great job. I recommend him VP for life.

Our diminutive group included Harry, Billy #2 and Andei, Louie and Mary Lou, Wayne and Ann, Phil and our Dear Leader, Ralph and his trustworthy sidekick.

Moving on to the lost Monies Dept, Greg was nowhere to be seen along with our checkbook. We will see if he won at the roulette table next month.

Health and Welfare Report: All still above ground..

Old Swap Meet's Dept.: Phil ran up to Mt Vernon, which I completely forgot about, and walked around in the rain. Maybe that's why I forgot.

Pig Out Report: The April breakfast was attended by a dozen of our finest. That would be Bill and Judy, Wayne and Ann, Louie and Mary Lou, Bill and Andei, Greg and Gail and Jerry and Linda. Colonial Pantry was the place to be.

Next Pig Out Dept: Hills Restaurant: Hill's Neighborhood Restaurant, 1843 NW 195th Street. Straight down the hill from Spiro's to 20th NW. Hill's is on your left in the back of the lot. Nice place. The day is Sunday, the 22nd at 5pm.

Next is car business, ie: Monroe Swap Meet:

They closed the McDonalds, so we will need to meet at the Jack in the Box on the North side of hwy 2 at Fryeland's Blvd at 11:00 am on Friday the 13th. This is mostly for those of you who will be hauling in a load.

Birthday persons who lost out on a dessert were Jerry and Angela. And the 50/50 was won once again by sleight of hand by the Secretary.

Mary arrived to pick me up, a small distance considering she had just driven 2700 miles to go hike across the AZ/Utah desert. The woman needs therapy.

Nostalgia isn't what it used to be...
