NOV of Twenty Sixteen News Stuffs

Ola amigos. Como esta usted? Oh, never mind. I forgot I'm back. November's poquito group included Billy and Judy, Wayne and Ann, Dave, Jerry and Linda, Bill and Andei, & Phil..

I'm informed by the sickly treasurer that our current bank account was converted back from pesos into nickels and deposited in a Lost Wages, Nevada electronic deposit only machine. This on their recent trip to warmer climes.

Sick report: Greg and Gail stayed home, claiming a cold, rather than face the wrath of the club for losing our entire $12.56 treasury. The Capt took a pill instead of an angioplasty. Isn't medicine wonderful? Judy got a shot in the wrist for some big word I couldn't spel.

Last month's Breakfast Report: A good time at Hop Jacks. They talked too fast for me to write down who was there and they probably forgot by now anyway.

Newish Business: A new Pig Out will be on Nov 20th which is a Sunday. It will be a breakfast at Colonial Pantry in Furdale Village by Greg and Gales. 9am. Call Judy to let her get a head count.

The Christmas Party: December 3rd. Collectors Choice in Snohomish at 6:30 for drinkie poos and 7:00 for ordering. Come and eat and get your dues back, that is if there's any money left. $20 gift exchange for a person of your bathroom or the bathroom you identify with.

Wayne's Willy works. I told you modern medicine is wonderful. And his car runs too. A giant step for personkind. Big congrats.

And to keep Bill #2 two from having a hissy fit, we gave him the 14 big ones from the 50/50. Now no more until 2019.

Last was a very informative, very wonderful talk on Cuba by a Rich Steve's imitation. Boiled down to, "It was swell".

NOTE: NO meeting in DEC.

ID that pink car and I'll see that you get your dues back at the Christmas party....

I'm great at multi-tasking—I can waste time, be unproductive, and procrastinate all at once..
