Feb of Twenty Seventeen News Stuffs

We managed to squeeze in our meeting between snow storms. I'm not sure storm is correct if you can count the snowflakes coming down but for Oak Harbor it was traumatic. Those of us with studded tires included Billy and Judy, Bill and Andei, Wayne and Ann, Greg, a recovered Gail, Phil and of course your scribe.

Greg got lost on the way to Harbor Freight and ended up at the bank where he found that we almost have a four-digit bank account. Sounds like another train trip coming up. And Judy still has some 200 clams from the party to stick back in. Greg stuck in $280 from dues and a couple 50/50's.

Sick call was limited to Dave. At least someone else has a chance at the 50/50. Judy had a successful hand surgery.

Old Pig Out: 8 PSL persons attended and all applauded the food at The Hook, especially the Happy Hour menu.

Harry is still looking for a few good men and women, perhaps a little loco, to join him on Rt. 66 in May. <http://azrt66.com/>

On the car calendar are 5 swap meets coming up. See side bar if you don't have enough junk.

More car junk: The Rodtiques who have lost the Colby venue have inquired about the Nile. It would have to be smaller but it's a beautiful place to be. A meeting is scheduled.

Last, Harry has just bought 5 copies of Cruzin' for his mother as he is on the cover. Next meeting you can get your copy signed for only 5 bucks.

New Porker Indigestion Lunch: Grinders at 19811 & Aurora on Feb 19th for lunch at 1230. That would-be noonish, not midnight. Phone is 206-542-0627.

Wayne has an Eastwood TIG200 welder, list $700, for only $350. Included some accessories. Call him. You have a new roster now.

Wayne won the 50/50 so he may not need the money now.

Behind every great man is a woman rolling her eyes. .
