Mar of Twenty EIGHTEEN News Stuffs

As you know I lied again. I made the meeting as I don't go to Hawai'i until next month. So someone scribble notes on a napkin and fax it to me, pretty please.

March meeting included Ann and Wayne, Andei, Greg, Gail, Dave, Phil and Jim, who someone held down while Bill got 25 bucks out of his wallet for joining. Welcome aboard Jim, to the good ship PSL.

Car Report: Wayne's Willy is still in the body shop but getting closer to paint. The engine and all the associated stuffs are fairly well back together at Wayne's. Troy's truck still needs engine installed then ready to paint. Bill Costello took delivery of his '37 Ford. It's so nice that he had to stay home to sit in it all night while the meeting went on. You did send your beautiful representative but we still missed you.

Person Report: If I got this right, Louie was in AZ and got together with Terry and Viccikki. Don't forget your sunscreen mate. Jerry and Linda are back on the 17th. They did stop in the great NW for a wee bit of rain and wind and met up with Bill.

Bank report: Four figures in the bank. That's good. Next week's car wash benefit is canceled. BUT, dues are due. Please mail your Yankee money to Greg at 9228 242th St SW, Edmonds, 98020 or mail it to the Secretary and I'm sure it will be passed on.

The old Pig Out had 8 persons who said, "good".

This March PIG OUT is Saturday, the 17th at the Channel Marker. It's a breakie so be there at 9am.

Swap meets coming up: Monroe, Puyallup, Portland, but the main one is Monroe where we have 3 spaces and 3 entry passes.

Good of the Order includes the info that someone in the club now has two willy's. That is as weird as having your willy painted. The second one includes a title and VIN. What a long, strange trip it's been.

Someone won the 50/50. Don't know, wasn't me.....Maybe some sun, Hawaiian music, beach bikinis and warm sand will clear my head. See you at the May swap meet.

Oh NO!! Not another trailer, Harry.....

Today a man knocked on my door and asked for a small donation towards the local swimming pool, so I gave him a glass of water.
