Oct of Twenty EIGHTEEN News Stuffs

Headed for the junk yard again

This writing person, Bill and Judy, Jerry and Linda, Billy and Andei, Wayne and Ann, Gail, Dave, Phil and Jim Eck must not have had anything to do as they all arrived for the October PSL meeting.

Treasury Report: Not one to go back on his word, Greg sent his emissary, Gail to give us the monies report he promised. $77 went into the bank leaving us with some to lotta money or currency if you prefer the French.

The CRUD Dept: Recovering from the aforementioned is Judy. I hope you get well but don't touch me.

Oldish stuff: The Porcine Indulgence: Having other obligations I missed out on a special one at Jerry and Linda's. I think a dozen showed up to look out the windows at almost two inches of rain in two hours. Dave even brought his wife. Not sure if it's the same one he brings to the Christmas party. And Judy was presented with a pink flamingo from Linda.

Monroe Swap: A quick run down. It rained and rained and rained and rained. A steady fall was well maintained. And when the place was one big bog, it started raining cats and dogs... Not kidding, Friday was no fun. Saturday threatened but held off on watering but the temperature had a big hint of Winter in it. Never the less, we all sold a bunch of junk and bought a wee bit too. Sunday the club's hard core arrived at 6am. The canopies were taken down just before, guess what, more rain and the fairgrounds were empty by 11. Special kudos for Phil who for years has arrived early, helped a bunch and stayed until the place is cleaned up. Good on ya, mate.

New but also boring stuff: If we can't get the keys from Linda for the house, this month's Pig Out will be at the Beach Café on the Edmonds waterfront. It's under Anthony's. Try Sunday, the 21st at 5pm if you don't want to be there by yourself.

Wayne has suggested a Trunk or Treat. Bring any car, hopefully decorated a bit and for more fun, wear a costume. It's on Halloween, of course, which is Wednesday the 31st at the Calvin Presbyterian Church on 85th. Also a chili cookoff from 6-7. I have been doing this in Oak Harbor for well over a decade. Try it. It's a kick.

Xmas: Christmas will come early this year, on Dec 1st (confirmed). Like the previous parties this Christmas will be full of jocularly and gaiety and tons of food, what else? This is our substitute for a meeting in Dec so don't miss it. Same great food but NO cash back this year as the kitty needs a rest. Same place, CCR or Collectors Choice Restaurant at 215 Cypress Ave in Snohomish. Dec 1st is a Saturday. Come at 6ish for drinkie poos and we will order around 7. Don't forget a gift, something nice like chrome plated muffler bearings, etc, for the Scribe.

Good of the Order Dept:

I think I forgot to remind you guys to "wear a really loud Hawaiian or car shirt to the meeting". I'll see if I can do it for November.

Troy has a water pump, etc. so quit looking. Unfortunately, it's in the back of Bill's car waiting for Troy to show up and claim it. Troy, you might as well wait for the Christmas party. Judy can wrap it.

No Bdays. Linda won the 50/50 bucks which she will use for tickets back to warmer climes for the two of them.

If tomatoes are technically a fruit, is ketchup a smoothie?
