March 2020

Our group this month encompassed Harry, Bill and Judy, Bill #2 and Andei, Wayne and Ann, Tod and Debbie, Greg, and a special guest, Jeff Nelson who was a member way back and still has his beautiful '56 panel. Hope he can make it more often.

While on Jeff, he has two F-100 bumpers, one like new chrome and one primered. $250 for both.

Hope that's right but email Jeff at Jefferjs@comcast.net.

Judy is back and recovered from her fall off the wagon. Let's be careful out there, people.

Treasurer reports the kiddy is down $300 from our donations to The Battered Women's House and The Cocoon House. Well spent. I think we took in 150 bucks from dues, maybe. Feel free to pay your dues. Ignore the social stigma attached with belonging to the PSL and be your own strong independent person.

News on the collector's plates: The bill dies in the House and is still in some committee in the Senate.

News flash: Greg is NOT going to the Portland swap meet. Be aware that the DOW may drop another thousand points due to lack of sales over that weekend.

The old Pig Out at the Colonial Pantry hosted 9 PSL persons. And the new one will B at B3 on the 22nd, a Sunday at 5PM. Location is 4027 196th NW in Lynnwood. B there or B a rectangle with equal and opposite sides.

William #2 won the 50/50 which he plans to use for buying one Apple stock as soon as the DOW drops another 20,000 points.

Under Good of the Order: Tod has a '35 Chevy 4 door for $2500. The price will be reduced 500 bucks every month until it sells. I already have it claimed in 6 months at which point Tod will owe me 500 smackers and a car. Don't give up your day job, Tod. This Chev has been stored indoors for 40 years. It also comes with $3000 worth of front suspension. A good project.

The Secretary went to Costco and found that the line wrapped around the building. Needing hearing aid batteries and a mask for the meeting, he walked up the head of the line, coughed twice, sneezed and blew his nose. Like the Red Sea, the line parted and he walked in. However, too late for masks and toilet paper. A mask you can understand but toilet paper? Do you wrap yourself in TP to avoid germs? With no masks available and 100,000 items to choose from the solution was obvious....see Sally.
