Where it all started

Jul 2022

NO BILL. This is not an indication of a deference of monies required to satisfy the establishment in which you are eating pizza. This is just saying Bill, the Pres, is not here. Eleven persons were.

WAYNE HERE. Yes, Wayne dug out his trusty VP gavel and dug in. A new person came, Jim Jimenez, who has a multitude of Ford trucks. It was a real slog for him as he lives in Sequim. Thanks for coming, Jim. You now hold the record for long distance. We let him win the Long-Distance hat.

In Sickness and in Health: Gail picked up a wee bit of food poisoning so stayed home today. Quit eating at those high-class joints, even if you do get a toy with your happy meal.

New BIZ Stuffs: Swap meet status has us on a 1st right to refuse the 3 spots that we usually have in the Fall. If we get them, we will be on our way to surrounding the scone stand and having complete dominance over sugar coated gut bomb indigestibles.

Linda came up with this great idea, a cruise to Nutty's Junk Yard Grill. It's at 6717 204th NE, Arlington and will be early Aug arriving about 130pm. We will have another meeting before for final details but circle Aug 1st to 15th on your calendar now. The place is amazing, kind of a Dragger's of Food.

Good of the Order: There is a car show slated for 23 July at Deception Pass State Park on Whidbey Island. Space is very limited. Not sure any spaces are left. You have to ask Linda, the Cruiser's Prez at 360-722-0485 It's the 100th anniversary of the park. Lots going on. Food, music, car show, classic trailers, blah, blah, blah.

Good of the Order: Wayne has gone to 4.5 car shows and won 12 Best of Shows, 35 Best Paint, and 13 Cute as a Bug's Ear Awards so far. In beautiful downtown Sultan there were only two second places left, one for Jerry and one for Harry. We will continue to try. Hope springs eternal.

800 cousins and one yank attended Jellybean's car show in Langley Township. No Bug's Ear trophies, just fun.

Check out the car show list for July and a bit of Aug. Lots to do coming up if you like driving and sitting around in the heat. It helps if you are a hopeless petrol head.

Someone won the 50/50 money. Darned if I know who. Was it Debbie?

This represents every car show that we, as a club, put on at the Nile Country Club. I won it when Paul Martinez brought it in from storage. I glued all the loose pieces back on and gave it to Bill. It's now a part of our history.

See, Bill and Jerry each trophied.

This is what happens when you leave a car show, foot to the floor, showing off plus you're an idiot.

It's an old racetrack in Langley, BC. Only 250 here. This is a few years back.

This is twice the number in the photo above. The other 300 are in an upper parking lot.
